Thanking our Patrons for their exceedingly liberal patronage during the present year, and with all Kind Thoughts and Good Wishes for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year

I hear the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth,
good will to men!
—Longfellow

At Christmas-tide the open hand Scatters its bounty o'er sea and land,
And none are left to grieve alone,
For love is heaven and claims its own.
—Sangster

A HOME PRODUCT

IT is with no little pride that we call the attention of our readers to the fact that all illustrations used in this edition were made in our own stereotyping department, and this issue is in every way a Mt. Sterling product, all the work herein being done by our regular force.

Again thanking our friends for their generous patronage, which has made such rapid strides possible, we are most cordially,
